Golden Belt Community Foundation Provides Training for Local Non-Profits

GREAT BEND, Kan. – Golden Belt Community Foundation (GBCF) is offering non-profits the opportunity to attend a free presentation on Leading Through Change and Succession Planning which will be presented on January 6, 2021. GBCF is sponsoring this free presentation for area organizations and nonprofits located in the counties of Barton, Pawnee, Rush, and Stafford. Presenters include Sandra Wiley, Boomer Consulting, Eric Kientz, and Varney & Associates.

These sessions will be virtual and provide information on how to plan for organizational change as well as how to implement succession planning that will help protect the future of the organization. An actionable plan will be provided to take back to staff/board to help start succession planning.

To register please go to our website www.goldenbeltcf.org, and click on the Succession Planning tab on the home page. Once you have registered for the sessions you will receive a confirmation email containing information about the meeting(s). Attendees may choose to attend one session or both. Registration prior to the event is required for all sessions.

Golden Belt Community Foundation

At over $24 million in total assets and more than 180 funds under management, the Golden Belt Community Foundation has been connecting people who care to causes that matter since 1996. Golden Belt Community Foundation exists to provide non-profit organizations in central Kansas with a permanent source of support and to serve as a vehicle for charitable giving for donors. GBCF serves the counties of Barton, Pawnee, Rush, and Stafford. For more information about Golden Belt Community Foundation, call (620) 792-3000 or visit their website at www.goldenbeltcf.org.
