If yes, please explain your need: _____

In the space provided, please answer the following questions to your best ability:

1. When you think about the future of your 'community' (work, home, school...to name a few) what concerns you the most and why?
2. What makes exercising leadership difficult in your community?
3. Based on your response from Question 2, how will you know when progress has been made on this issue?

4. As you think about your capabilities, vulnerabilities, and triggers, what would you like improve upon or learn more about?

5. Have you attended any other leadership program(s)? (Circle one) Yes No

If so, please list the name(s) of the program(s): _____

Leadership Golden Belt class members are required to attend all class sessions.

In addition to these sessions, participants will spend a small amount of time outside the "formal sessions" to complete visits to various businesses and organizations, practice leadership skills, and complete some small class assignments. Any absence, regardless of reason, must be excused by the facilitators at least 2 days in advance of the session meeting. Participants unable to attend all sessions may, at the discretion of the facilitators and advisory committee, be withdrawn from the program. In such cases, there will be no tuition refund.

You will have the opportunity to purchase a coaching package at the end of the program at a discounted rate.

If selected, I can devote the required time to the program: (Circle one) Yes No

7/26 - CENTRAL KS DREAM CENTER - 2100 BROADWAY AVE

8/02 - GOLDEN BELT COMMUNITY FOUNDATION - 1307 WILLIAMS

Session will feature:

1. How to diagnose situations
2. How to manage yourself
3. How to intervene skillfully
4. How to energize others
5. What is civic leadership & how to do I get involved
6. Speakers, who are community members, exercising leadership in different ways
7. Learning how to ask powerful questions to help you, your team, or organization move forward
8. Team coaching to help the participants see movement in their adaptive challenge
9. And in a final session, discussion facilitated around what works well, what needs improvement in the program, and what kind of follow-up/further connection can be fostered in participants. The Community Leadership Programs that are most successful expose participants to two or more sessions, so it is important that this is not a "one size fits all" program, but one that is adaptive and impactful for the group.
