The Foundation operates organizational endowment funds on behalf of qualifying charitable organizations. Once a fund agreement is in place with an organization, the Foundation will receive funds from the organization and invest the funds. Use of the invested funds is subject to the same policies as other funds at the Foundation, such as the investment, grantwriting, and spending policies.

Part V, Line 4

The Foundation uses the endowment funds to disburse as the board of directors or the donor specifies to further the Foundation's exempt purpose of providing charitable organizations in central Kansas with a permanent source of support and to serve as a vehicle for charitable giving for donors.

Part X, Line 2

The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been reflected in the Foundation's consolidated financial statements. The Foundation believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the consolidated financial statements. For each of the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Foundation did not recognize any interest or penalties associates with tax matters. The Foundation's federal exempt organization returns (Form 990) for 2021 and 2020 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they are filed. No taxing authorities have commenced income tax examinations for open years.
